Shots at Political Game. And Some of the Hunters

Gubernatorial lightning bugs are shimmering in the dark. A swarm of them will head to morrow for Saratoga, where the Republican State Convention will be held next Monday. William Parnes fr. leaves for the seat of war to-morrow. This morning he couldn't say who would be in the running for the nomination of Governor. According to Mr. Barnes it is anybody's fight. Special shipments of lightning rods will Special shipments of lightning rods will be forwarded to Saratoga during the coming days.

No member of the National headquarters will accompany the claims to Saratoga. microscope is almost needed in New York to find a A clothes shop that doesn't buy from other people's clothes factories.

We're an exception.

We didn't buy from sample garments last January. We waited until July 15th and then bought cloth. Cloth to make up into suits and overcoats ourselves.

Mills were at slack season-dead after the run to supply the factories which wholesale nationally.

We woke 'em up. Got in on patterns that are for Fall 1913. Got right prices to keep the mills busy on exclusive stuff of our own selection, and had it made up.

Anybody who had their own tailoring plant could have done the same. The point is—they didn't. We're ALIVE. The cloth started coming six weeks ago.

The new Fall clothes emerged from our shops this week. This is the whole story. The clothes back it up. Nothing can approach them for the money in New York. Will you come, Mr. Show-me, to-day?

Incomparable Smartness, Exceptional Quality and an Unusually Low Price in This

Special Saturday Sale of Misses'and Young Women's Fall Suits at $15.95

Every young lady who knows the fine art of looking her best is aware that very often a good price paid for a suit or dress does not buy all that she demands. $50 spent for a suit may buy full fifty dollars' worth of costly material, trimming and dressmaking, and yet it may not buy one whit of style, distinctiveness, individuality, chic, or whatever you choose to call it

That is the great essential that makes O'Neill's tashions pre-eminently smart and "different." Along with quality, along with value, we give you that often unpurchasable quality-STYLE-and it is the style that our incomparably smart New York young women desire-and demand-and deserve.

Merely as merchandise these stunning Suits are worth $20.00 or more, but there is so much more than a low price to consider. Come and see them. The suits are lined with high grade guaranteed satin. The materials are handsome new mixtures and fine serges in the correct fall shades. Skirts are cut high or girdle style. Sizes are 14,16 and 18 years; the best fittings for misses and slender women.
